

Price of Preterminated Fiber Optic Connectors

Article Overview

Pre-terminated fiber optic connectors typically range from $10 to $200 per assembly, depending on fiber count, connector type, and cable specifications.

Factors Affecting Price

- Connector Type: Common connectors include SC, LC, ST, and MPO/MTP. MPO connectors, especially for high-density applications, tend to be more expensive due to their multi-fiber design and precision alignment requirements .
- Fiber Count and Cable Length: Assemblies can range from 2 fibers to over 288 fibers. Higher strand counts and longer cable lengths increase material and manufacturing costs .
- Indoor vs Outdoor Use: Outdoor-rated pre-terminated cables, including armored or direct burial types, are more expensive due to additional protective layers and environmental resistance .
- Customization and Testing: Factory-tested, custom-length assemblies with pre-installed connectors and optional hybrid bundles (fiber plus electrical wiring) add to the cost but reduce installation time and labor .
- Installation Savings: Pre-terminated cables reduce labor costs by eliminating field termination, polishing, and splicing, which can offset higher upfront material costs .

Typical Price Ranges

- Single-mode, 2-12 fibers, LC or SC connectors, indoor: $10-$50 per cable assembly
